Glenn Recognized for Forty Years in the Banking Industry

Danny Glenn, president of Magnolia State Bank in Laurel, was recently inducted in the Mississippi Bankers Association (MBA) Forty Year Club in recognition of his forty years of professional achievement in the field of banking in Mississippi. Pictured, left, Marcus Robinson, President and CEO of Magnolia State Bank (MSB) presented Glenn with his certificate of membership.

In 1970 Glenn began his banking career as a teller at The First National Bank in downtown Laurel which was located at the corner of Magnolia Street and Central Avenue. Working his way into management he managed two branches of First National Bank during his 13 years.

When Commercial National Bank, now known as Trustmark National Bank, built the Sawmill branch near Ramada Inn, Glenn was offered the management position and in 1983 began a 17 year tenure with Trustmark.

His love for hometown banking led him to join Magnolia State Bank in 2005 where he opened the Laurel office located in the old Union Planters Bank building on Highway 15 North.

“I have thoroughly enjoyed my association with Magnolia State Bank and all of the great folks here,” said Danny Glenn.

Since opening in 2005, the Laurel office has grown from $0 to $21 million in deposits and $22 million in loans.
